AROUND the TOWNSHIP

With the scientists tearing ahead the way they are, there looms the possibility that some day the nation's foods all will be produced synthetically.

Thoughtful persons recognize, however, that that time may be 100 years away. Meanwhile, those who wish to eat should encourage the farmers.

A good way for parents of Future Farmers to give that encouragement will be to turn out tonight for the father and son dinner at the high school.

Paul Dougherty's students have worked hard on their projects during the spring. Both those who have had comparatively little to work with and those who have had a great deal have made unusual showings. There is Martin Duarte, for instance, who is not only raising five helters but is growing one patch of garlic behind McElroy & Chelm's lumber yard and another about where Judge Norris is thinking of building a new house.

Like Martin, all the boys are enthusiastic but their elders can spur them on still more by showing continued interest in their activities.

Most everybody in Washington township has worked, is working or has friends or relatives working in the Graham stove works over in Newark. A great many township folks draw income either directly or indirectly from the plant. The company pays a heap of taxes to Alameda county. The Graham family got its start in the township and the present plant superintendent has spent most of his life in the township.

Knowing this, we were somewhat surprised the other day to learn that relatively few local people have ever taken the trouble to visit the factory in its entirety. To see the whole plant takes about two hours and is worth anybody's time. LaVerne Silva, Centerville boy, does a good job as guide. For us the high points of the visit were the molding rooms with their pots of liquid metal and the enameling department with its row of feminine workers as pretty as we ever saw.

Occasionally some local organization's members see fit to chide the Township Register for failure to give their group sufficient publicity. This newspaper never knowingly offends in this respect. We try to cover adequately the news of a community of more than 12,000 persons who are scattered through eight towns. This requires a lot of scampering around. It is a source of some sadness to us to know that practically every lodge, woman's group and commercial club has a publicity committee, yet in only one or two instances do those publicity committees ever stir themselves to see that the news gets to the paper.

Mosquitos designated by the technical name Aedes squamiger — a migratory marsh species — were present in Niles, Decoto and Centerville for several days during the middle of April but have now disappeared, according to Roland Bendel, Washington Township foreman of the mosquito abatement district. A few stragglers remain, apparently to clean up their ground. Bendel is still trying to find out what sector of marsh they came from. Because squamiger will fly as far as 40 miles or more from their breeding places, locating their source is not always easy. Bendel and his crew have been engaged principally in oiling cesspools, septic tanks, an old dairy drains to kill mosquito "wrigglers" breeding in these places during the past two weeks.

LEGION AUXILIARY WILL OBSERVE MOTHER'S DAY

A Mothers' Day program will be presented at the Veterans' Memorial building in Niles on the evening of Wednesday, May 6, at a joint meeting of the Legion and the Auxiliary. Mrs. Nell Farrington Myers is in charge of the program. The public is invited.

PADEN SPEAKER AT SCHOOL FEST

NILES—Annual red letter day for the Niles Chamber of Commerce was observed Monday with the luncheon meeting at Niles grammar school in observance of public schools week. Nearly all the members of the chamber attended, accompanied by their wives.

E. Dixon Bristow, principal of the school, was introduced by Dr. E. C. Grau, president of the chamber, and told of the handicraft and projects performed by various grades. The works were inspected later by a large number of the visitors.

William G. Paden, superintendent of Alameda schools, made the principal address, telling of the extension of public school curricula into branches that have been attacked on the ground that they were "fads and frills." He told much of what has been accomplished for the benefit of pupils in physical education. His remarks were loudly applauded.

Luncheon was served by the Parent-Teacher association. The Centerville Chamber of Commerce was represented by F. T. Dusterberry and the Lions club by Judge Allen G. Norris.

Tuesday night the Centerville school likewise held open house, and school week was observed similarly by other schools throughout the township.

David E. Martin, county superintendent of schools, speaking at the Education Day program at the Centerville grammar school Tuesday afternoon, stressed the importance of the parents' personal touch with the school. Mr. Martin stated that New York and California are the only states in the Union the schools of which were not drastically affected by the economic situation of the past few years, and that this is due to the fact that in these states provision is made in the constitution for the support of the schools.

The fifth grade under the direction of Mrs. Inez Silva and Miss Josephine Herbert presented an operetta, "Spring Glow."

After viewing the splendid exhibition of the pupils' work shown in the various rooms, the visiting parents and friends were served tea in the library by the Parent-Teacher association. The seventh and eighth grade girls acted as hostesses.

A sound picture, "Black Beauty," will be shown at the grammar school on Friday at 1:00 p. m. Parents, or any one wishing to see the picture are invited to come.

Niles Boy Uninjured By Spill From Plane

NILES—Charles Oliver, Niles boy had an exciting time early Sunday afternoon when the airplane in which he was a passenger nosed over in Stelvers field, near the Santos road, and gave him and the pilot a good shaking up.

Charles had been doing considerable air cruising during the week-end with friends from Oakland and his pilot picked the Stelvers field as a landing place to deliver the local boy at the end of his ride.

"I tried to tell him that the field was full of wheat and was a bad spot," Charles commented after the accident, "but he couldn't hear me." When the plane struck the field, the heavy growth caused it to nose over, damage a quantity of grain and bend its propeller.

Charles said the plane is the property of Sam Broadway, commercial flier at the Oakland airport. The pilot made repairs on the craft and took off for Oakland.

Last Saturday Broadway took Charles Oliver and Bert McKernan

Niles Road Contract To Be Let Promptly

NILES—Reporting to the Niles Chamber of Commerce on the meeting of the California state chamber, which he attended as delegate from the local group, A. J. Petsche said he was informed by the state highway department that bids would be opened on the six Niles underpasses within the next 10 days.

The meeting, held at the William Taylor hotel in San Francisco last week, was largely attended and developed wide interest.

J. C. Newell, of the special committee on grade crossings, reported the railroad commission had issued a final order providing for the closing of three grade crossings between San Mateo and Redwood City.

Reconstruction of the Altamont Pass road, between Livermore and Tracy was officially declared the most important project now on the department's program.

A delegation from Contra Costa county requested that the highway be rerouted in Franklin canyon between Muir road and Willow pass, so through traffic would not pass through the cities of Martinez, Antioch and Pittsburg.

The highway department voted to close the door to the further inclusion of secondary roads in the state system.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP REGISTRATION BEATS 2 NEIGHBORS COMBINED

NILES—All is in readiness in Washington Township for the California presidential primary election, to be held next Tuesday, May 5. There has been but little discussion of the factional fights among democrats and republicans, although some interest is manifest in the contest between the two tickets in the field for delegates to the republican national convention.

A strong campaign has been waged in behalf of the Warren uninstructed delegation to the national republican convention, while the Landon-for-president delegation has received vigorous support from the Hearst newspapers.

Registration of voters in Washington Township this year shows a lead over Pleasanton and Murray townships combined, the latter including Livermore. Washington shows 2042 republicans, 2173 democrats, 4 socialists and 1 progressive; total 4240. The total for Murray and Pleasanton is 3966.

For 1934 total registration of Washington Township was 4347 and for Pleasanton and Murray combined, 4494.

Hats to Match Top Juvenile Coats

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

GRANTED that mother and big sister are looking too chic and charming for words this spring, in their new spic and span stylish tailcoats or their bolero costumes, if not a redingote outfit that contrasts print with plain, to which there has been added accessories utterly feminine and seductive as accessories must be that would go high-style this season.

However, we are not saying that voguishly attired adults are the whole show, not when a bevy of stylishly arrayed youngsters join the procession. Then does competition become keen and it is the tiny tots in their new spring outfits that will be getting the big applause, we venture to say, be their elders ever so beguilingly garbed. Which they should for children's fashions are as cunning and intriguing as fancy dare picture this season.

As a fashion "first" for spring it is the little coat-and-hat ensemble that is taking precedent at the immediate moment. It adds zest to the mode that children's coats are unusually versatile this season in the matter of styling. Then, too, a particularly wide choice of materials is offered. Tweeds in delectable colorings, camel's hair weaves, navy twills, novelty wool plaids and serge are all-important in the list of juvenile coatings.

Close attention is being paid to tailoring and styling, with the English trend dominating. Inverted pleats, crisp collars, velvet pipings as well as insets in tailored collars are high style details to consider. Most important to remember is that fashion decrees that every wee coat or suit is to be companioned by a matching hat.

While grown-ups are going in for daring color to the limit, high colors are not so much in the children's wear picture. As a matter of fact, it is the medium tones that are most generally in use this season. Pastels are also definitely favored in aqua, dusty and skipper blue in the order named. Many all-white coats will be worn.

Full length coats are more popular than the short jackets, although the ever beloved reefer type jacket of navy flannel continues to hold its own. The trio of models pictured were selected for illustration from among a collection of little folk's fashions displayed at a preview style event recently held at the Merchandise Mart in Chicago.

The clever little coat to the left is one of the new and very much admired Princess Elizabeth types. It carries that convincing air of distinction such as every fashion-alert mother covets for her child. Tweed in the popular dusty rose shade fashions it. Cunningly flared lines, the double breast button fastening, and the deftly tailored details of collar, cuffs and pockets are all significant style items. The collar of natural linen is detachable.

The little girl walking hand-in-hand so chummily with her companion has on a very attractive long reefer coat in navy blue. White metal buttons and a white hand-embroidered lingerie collar add chic finishing touches. The perky matching hat is of cloth identical with that of the coat.

The adorable child in the foreground has on a coat of skipper blue novelty weave wool with the Princess Elizabeth lines given to it that are regarded so exceedingly smart for the younger set this spring. Her matching Scotch cap repeats the trim of blue plaid silk used on the coat.

MULTI-DUTY GARB URGED FOR SPRING

There's a lot of talk these days about the "basic wardrobe," which is a good idea for the spring budget.

The idea is to select the spring suit, coat and printed frocks in one color theme, to be worn with interchangeable accessories. Suppose, for instance, you start with one of the smart new man-tailored suits with black jacket and striped skirt. With it, if you shop wisely, you will get an extra skirt to match the jacket.

Then you should choose a topcoat in tailored style, also black, which may be worn over the suit or with a printed silk frock.

Your printed silks should be bright, gay and simply made, so that you may wear various frilly lingerie accents with them, changing their mood with the jabot or collar you select. With these for a foundation, you may achieve endless variety by choice of contrasting accessories.

New Hats Make Striking

Use of Ostrich Feathers

Ostrich feathers and gay flowers add the striking effects to new hats.

Black straw bonnets, dipped in a peak over the forehead, are encircled with ostrich feathers curled over one ear or trimmed with bright, shiny flowers perched along the brim.

Veils are an outstanding feature, consisting of coarse, stiff, black mesh, sometimes fashioned in a circular cut extending down to fasten under the chin.

WITH A VEIL

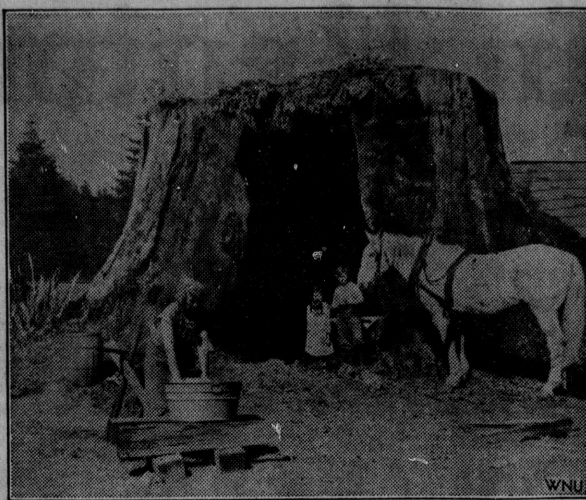

A bit of straw, a brim of closely stitched net, a full-blown rose and a fragile, frivolous, flattering veil and presto! The milliner evolves as seductive a little cocktail hat as the world ever gazed upon. As here pictured this intriguing headpiece is posed by Helen Chandler, who wears it in her newest play. It carries a highly important style message in the tight brim that frames the head, namely, the use of many layers of net closely stitched. Milliners are making many wide-brimmed hats as well as turbans and toques of stitched net this season.

Style Tips

Handbags are all big and roomy. Belts these days show striking designs.

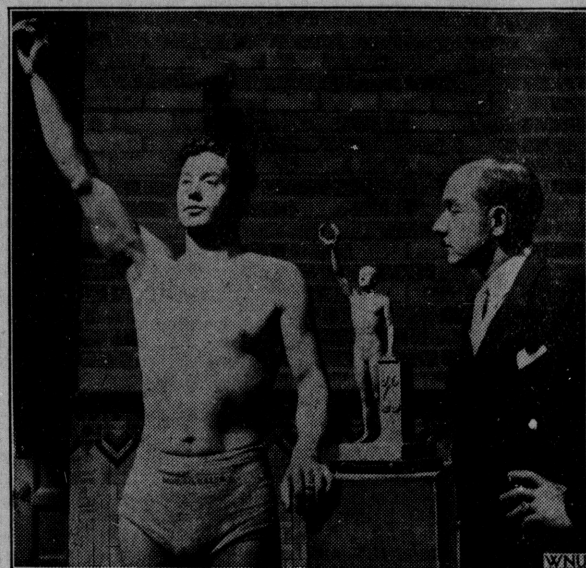

A charming sports set of hat and scarf are made of white pique. Felt, once confined to hats, is promoted to the realm of clothes.

HOLLOWED STUMP SERVES AS HOME

Vacationists in northwestern California near Crescent City eschew tents for hollowed out giant Redwood tree stumps. Here's a typical stump camp—something novel, but nevertheless over 4000 years old. Plenty of room inside for dining and slumber.

COACH, ARTIST AND SCULPTOR

Fred Cady of the University of Southern California is shown here with his N. C. A. A. achievement award statue and Jimmy Gilhula, the Trojans' star swimmer, who posed for it. The statue will be presented by the National Collegiate Athletic Association to the outstanding college swimmer of 1935. Cady, internationally known as a swimming coach, will be head coach of the divers on the American Olympic team this summer. Gilhula, model, is national 200-meter free style champion and holds 20 American records at distances from 500 yards to a mile.

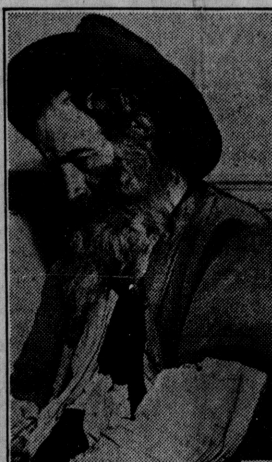

Remains With Aunt

Freddie Bartholomew, child screen prodigy, will remain in the custody of his aunt, Miss Mylicent Bartholomew, as the result of a court decision denying a motion by the boy's mother to revoke guardianship papers granted last October. Mrs. Bartholomew has filed a second suit to force Freddie's guardian to account for "more than $5,000" earned by him during the last two years.

Marin County officials are investigating the suspected milk-war shooting of two cows on the ranches of nonunion operators.

Eccentric Slayer

Peter Volse, itinerant who roams the highways of Santa Clara County with a burro-drawn cart, shot and fatally wounded Dr. Jasper Gattuccio, 31, prominent dentist, on the highway near San Jose. The tragedy occurred when the dentist, attempting to photograph the picturesque outfit, unwittingly incurred the eccentric's wrath.

1,680 LOSE LIVES DURING YEAR AT GRADE CROSSINGS

These reports showed that in 1935 1,680 persons were killed at highway-railroad grade crossings. In 1934 fatalities from such accidents totaled 1,554; in 1933, 1,511; in 1932, 1,525; in 1931, 1,811.

For December fatalities from grade-crossing accidents totaled 220, or an increase of 43 above December, 1934, while injured totaled 606, compared with 525 in the same month the preceding year. Reports showed 525 accidents at highway-railroad grade crossings in December, 1935, compared with 444 in December, 1934.

Farm Jurors Don't Know Hay Baler; Judge Asks Picture

Attorney Paul O. Cooper, representing a client in Fairmont, Minn., suing for damages allegedly suffered in a collision between an automobile and a hay baler, thought the jury of 12 farmers knew about hay balers. But they told Judge J. E. Haycraft they had never seen one, although much hay is raised hereabouts. Then it developed Attorney Cooper couldn't describe one either, so Judge Haycraft told him to bring a picture.

All Around the House

Sweep rugs the way of the pile. Brushing against the grain tends to brush dust in instead of out.

Paint stains that are dry and old may be removed from cotton or woolen goods with chloroform. First cover amply with olive oil.

The tough skin that forms on top of a cornstarch pudding may be prevented if a piece of oiled paper is placed over pudding when set away to cool.

If the table silver is placed in hot soapsuds immediately after being used, and dried with a soft, clean cloth, much of the work of polishing will be saved.

Paper baking cups make excellent caps for milk bottles. Press edges down firmly to fit mouth of bottle.

Purchase seldom used spices in small packages, as it is more economical since spices lose some of their flavor when exposed to the air.

Wood ashes make an excellent fertilizer for shrubbery and rose bushes, also for dahlias, peonies and delphinium. Scatter ashes over soil. It makes it sweet and has a tendency to loosen it.

When you are basting roast beef, a tablespoon of brown or white sugar added to the gravy improves the flavor and color.

Powdered borax added to the water when washing fine white flannels helps to keep them soft.

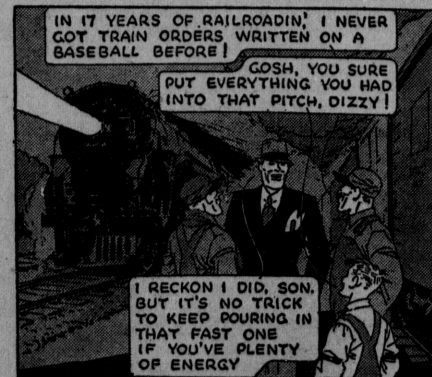

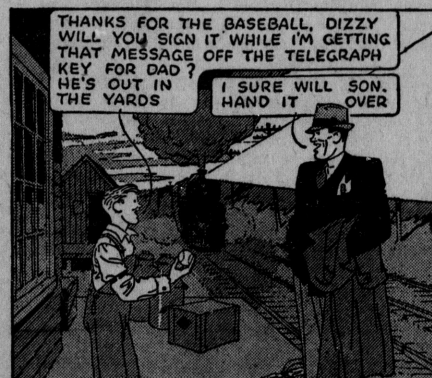

A simple Russian dressing is made by adding two tablespoons of chili sauce and two tablespoons of finely chopped green peppers to one cup of mayonnaise.

Why the Cow Jumped

A native of East London, South Africa, brewed some beer. His employer keeps a cow. The beer was left in an accessible place, and the cow, in passing, sampled it—about three gallons of it. Normally she is a quiet and well-behaved cow. But now she ran around in circles, tried to jump over the moon, and cleared a five-foot fence. And the native has been fined for owning beer.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

By Carl S. Kelty

VOTE FOR WARREN DELEGATES

Governor Landon may prove the most available candidate before the Republican national convention. If so, he will be nominated, irrespective of California's sending a delegation pledged to Landon in advance. If Landon appears not the best timber he will not be nominated, and California's Landon delegation will be left holding the sack — assuming the Hearst-Merriam ticket is chosen at the primary election May 5.

The Warren uninstructed delegation, if elected, will go unpunished—will be in position to make the convention's strongest course yet stronger. And don't forget the platform. Principles are more important than personalities.

The delegates on the Warren uninstructed ticket are representative of the entire state, leaders whose names carry weight. The assumption is reasonable that their influence in the national convention will be directed to building the strongest platform possible—to nomination of the strongest candidate possible.

Landon has not developed enough support throughout the nation, even with the California delegation included, to assure his nomination. Nor has any avowed candidate developed such support. It is more than probable that some leader heretofore not prominent as a candidate will be nominated.

What sense is there in tying the hands of the California delegation? The names on the Warren uninstructed ticket are sufficient guarantee of their independence and the integrity of their purposes. A number of them are supporters of Landon.

Vote for the Warren delegation on May 5!

RECORD YOUR FINGERPRINTS

The Centerville Lions' Club is sponsoring the nation-wide movement or universal finger printing. The Lions have provided facilities for taking and recording finger prints as a means of positive identification. No charge is made for finger-printing, and identification cards are issued—likewise without charge.

The Lions cite many facts in support of their campaign. Every year upward of 40,000 unknown dead are buried in the United States, persons whose relatives in thousands of cases are searching for them. Hundreds of cases of lapse of memory, of dual personality, go unsolved. Such slip of memory may happen to you—to anyone—psychologists say.

Universal finger printing, with the records on file in Washington, would end all this. Further it would eliminate false impersonation and go far to prevent fraud through such impersonation. It would insure payment of funds to persons for whom intended.

The department of justice in Washington has found finger print records its strongest single instrument in detection of criminals. The arguments in support of universal finger printing are too numerous to be recited here.

At present finger printing is purely voluntary except for arrested criminals. Those of good intent scarcely can object. With others it should be compulsory.

Centerville Lodges, Clubs Show Activity

CENTERVILLE—The ways and means committee of the St. James Guild of which Mrs. John Lowman is chairman will give a card party at Memorial hall on Saturday, May 2, beginning at 8 p. m. There will be excellent prizes, including a door prize. Refreshments, for which this group of ladies is justly renowned, will be served.

Other members of the committee are Mrs. R. W. Emerson, Mrs. T. N. Alexander, Mrs. R. T. Anderson, Mrs. J. Adams, Mrs. E. Hawley, Mrs. J. Stevenson, Mrs. T. Oakes, Mrs. J. Boyd and Mrs. Robert Tyson.

The affair will be given for the benefit of the guild's working fund, and every effort is being made to make it a social and financial success.

Centerville Grove of Druids will give a dance at the Swiss club in Newark Saturday night, May 2. A. E. Francis and A. E. Alameda are in charge of arrangements. The proceeds will be used for the purpose of sending delegates to the grand grove to be held in San Jose during the third week in June.

Twenty-five members of St. James Men's club of which R. E. Stagg is president, will participate in a no-host dinner party in San Jose on the evening of Thursday, May 7.

At the district convention held in Centerville Thursday night, Centerville lodge, Knights of Pythias, will entertain delegates from all lodges of the district which takes in Southern Alameda county from this side of Lake Merritt.

Taxis Replace Old Gharries as Vehicles in Holy City

The last of Jerusalem's famous fleet of ramshackle open horse drawn cabs has been relegated to the junk heap.

In their place modern taxicabs will convey the citizens of Jerusalem and visitors up and down the precipitous slopes of the Holy City.

Practically every visitor to Jerusalem used to take at least one drive in one of these horse cabs, or "gharries." They seemed as typically a part of the Jerusalem scene as gondolas in Venice or rickshaws in Shanghai.

Unfortunately for the cab drivers, however, the steep city streets recently were asphalted for the benefit of automobile traffic. As a result the cab horses continually slipped and fell. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals intervened and made representations to the government resulting in the withdrawal of horse drawn cabs from the streets.

GAS, GAS ALL THE TIME, CAN'T EAT OR SLEEP

"The gas on my stomach was so bad I could not eat or sleep. Even my heart hurt. A friend suggested Adlerika. The first dose I took brought me relief. Now I eat as I wish, sleep fine and never feel better."—Mrs. Jas. Miller.

Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels while ordinary laxatives act on the lower bowel only. Adlerika gives your system a thorough cleansing, bringing out old, poisonous matter that you would not believe was in your system and that has been causing gas pains, sour stomach, nervousness and headaches for months.

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York, reports: "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adlerika greatly reduces bacteria and colon bacilli."

Give your stomach and bowels a REAL cleansing with Adlerika and see how good you feel. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and chronic constipation. Sold by all druggists and drug departments.

Alvarado Personals

Twenty-two children received their first holy communion at St. Anne's Catholic church on Sunday morning with Reverend Father Flately officiating. The ceremony was very impressive, with the small girls in white dresses and veils, the boys wearing white arm bands and neckties. They were led to the front pews of the church by Miss Antoinette Rose and Miss Dorothy Chrysotomo who were attired in the blue capes and veils representing the Children of Mary Sodality.
The Alvarado home farm department center will entertain the county committee at Hayward the latter part of next week. The farm center members are planning a card party for their benefit on May 27 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Dutra in Centerville. A number of Alvarado residents attended the baseball game Sunday between Alvarado and Newark, which ended with a score of 12 to 8 in Newark's favor. The fact that three Alvarado boys, Dutra, Lebon and Roderick were on the Newark lineup made the game very interesting and the rivalry keen. The Newark club is aiming straight for the championship with three straight wins since the league began.
A card party sponsored by the Children of Mary Sodality will be held at the S. D. E. hall on May 1. Miss Dorothy Chrysotomo, president of the Sodality is in charge of arrangements.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mateo are the proud parents of an eight pound baby boy who arrived Friday at the East Oakland hospital. Mr. Mateo is employed by the Hellwig Meat Co.
